

The Lord's Day – June 21st, 2026 Father's Day

"He was a sinless man, not a sinless Superman. He woke up with bed head. He had pimples at thirteen. He never would have appeared on the cover of Men's Health (he had 'no beauty that we should desire him,' Isaiah 53:2). He came as a normal man to normal men. He knows what it is to be thirsty, hungry, despised, rejected, scorned, shamed, embarrassed, abandoned, misunderstood, falsely accused, suffocated, tortured, and killed. He knows what it is to be lonely. His friends abandoned him when he needed them most; had he lived today, every last Twitter follower and Facebook friend would have un-friended him when he turned thirty-three – he who will never un-friend us."
Gentle and Lowly, Pg. 47, Dane Ortlund

CALL TO WORSHIP – Psalm 27:6

Elder Brown

* OPENING HYMN – # 570 - “Faith of Our Fathers!”

PRAYER OF INVOCATION

LORD'S PRAYER

“Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.”

THE WESTMINSTER SHORTER CATECHISM – Question # 24

LEADER: How is Christ a prophet?

PEOPLE: As a prophet, Christ reveals the will of God to us for our Salvation by His word and Spirit.

The Confession of our Sin (I John 1:8 & 9)

CALL TO CONFESSION OF SIN - “Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of Your name; and deliver us, and provide atonement for our sins, for Your name's sake!”
(Psalm 79:9)

SILENT CONFESSION OF SIN

CORPORATE CONFESSION OF SIN

Lord, you come to us, but we do not recognize you; you call, but we do not follow; you command, but we do not obey, you bless us, but we do not thank you. Please forgive and help us. Lord, you accept us, but we do not accept others; you forgive us, but we do not forgive those who wrong us; you love us, but we do not love our neighbors. Please forgive and help us. Lord, you showed us how to carry out your mission, but we still insist on our own; you identified yourself with outcasts, the needy, and the poor, but we do not bother to find out what is happening to them; you suffered and died for the sake of all, but we do not give up our comfortable lives. Please forgive and help us, through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Amen.

ASSURANCE OF PARDONING GRACE - “Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and Your dominion endures throughout all generations. The Lord upholds all who fall, and raises up all who are bowed down.”

(Psalm 145:13-14)

As Benedictine monks greeted strangers who came to their door, we welcome all visitors to our worship service today. Please fill out one of the cards in the pew and place it in the offering plate, or sign the visitor's book.

We look forward to seeing you again soon!

General Fund Update: As of May 31, 2026, giving is down $11,300 compared to this point last year.

We welcome to our pulpit today, Tanner Moldenhauer. After discerning a call to ministry and a deep love for God’s Word and His people, Tanner is a student at Greenville Presbyterian Theological Seminary and serves as an intern at Redeemer Presbyterian Church (PCA) in Peoria, Illinois. He also works as a Registered Respiratory Therapist with areas of expertise in the cardiac intensive care unit and neonatal resuscitation. He has a love for old books, particularly the Puritans, and is shaped by Reformed theology, including the Westminster Standards and a commitment to the ordinary means of grace. Tanner has been married to his wife, Taylor, for 11 years, and together they have one daughter, Caroline.
